General comments:
Sean was an excellent TA.
Strengths: Sean was very well organized. He stayed in consistent communication with me, always asking me if anything needed to be done for class. He did a very thorough and fair job w/ the grading, and provided useful feedback to the students on their written work. The turn around time on grading was more than reasonable. Sean gave an excellent lecture on interest group influence on foreign policy—it was well organized, and he did a great job covering the literature and making it understandable to the students. He had to cover a lot of ground, in other words, and he did it well. He was comfortable w/ the students and treated them w/ respect. Sean also helped w/ some research for a group project assignment, and this was quite helpful.
